20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2009	"An exuberant sauvignon, full of flavors of sour white and tropical fruits with a creamy texture, at least as sour cream considering the huge freshness of this white. The 20 Barrels range comes from El Centinel vineyard, one of the closest to the sea in the Casablanca Valley." Guía Descorchados 2010 / Chile
20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2008	"This wine is incredibly rich and lush on the palate with mineral laden ripe, grapefruit citrus and sweet melon fruit. Made from 100 percent Sauvignon Blanc aged in stainless steel. The fruit (clones 107, 242, 297) is from the upper slopes of El Centinela Vineyard in the coolest part of the Casablanca Valley just a few kilometers from the sea. The winemaker is Adolfo Hurtado." International Wine Review / USA
20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2008	91 POINTS! "Striking Sauvignon Blanc. One whiff, taste and swish across the palate and you'll know this is elevated stuff. For starters, the bouquet delivers honest bell pepper, melon, passion fruit and apple aromas; and along with the fruit there's nuance, structure and balancing herbal notes. Full, long and regal. Drink now to capture this wine's powerful essence." Wine Enthusiaste Magazine. March 2009 / USA

20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2008	“Green-hued straw. Mineral-dominated citrus and orchard fruit aromas are impressively expansive, picking up a smoky herbal note with air. Gently sweet tangerine and pear flavors are firmed by tangy minerals and given a bitter edge by anise and quinine qualities. Blends sweetness and vivacity smoothly, finishing with refreshing bitterness and good grip.” Josh Reynolds / International Wine Cellar Mar-Apr. 2009 / USA
20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2007	Best Chilean Sauvignon Blanc "Once again Cono Sur Surprises us. They won an award with Pinot Noir, and with Sauvignon Blanc they don't stay behind, considering this the best Sauvignon Blanc of the year, gold medal among all the tasted samples, a great distinction for a winery and of course its winemaker. Pale greenish bright yellow. Aromas of good intensity, asparagus and tropical fruits like pineapple. You can also feel mineral notes, fresh and seductive, with herbal tones, floral, very elegant. Very good in mouth, savy and juicy, generous, with plenty of fruit and special fennel notes. Balanced and filling, an exceptional wine which you feel like drinking next to good meals, because of its potential. Long ending, with plenty of citric, very good." Guía de Vinos de Chile 2008 (Chilean wine guide)
20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2007	“Crystalline and luminous, this is a wine of herbal and fruity aromas, where notes of green apple and white peaches are easily perceived. In mouth it’s fresh, amiable, and of good persistence. Once again the apples and fresh fruits are notorious. It’s quite easy to drink, sophisticated yet amiable, and it matches perfectly the fruit and mineral notes. Very nice. It goes well with maigre cebiche, grilled sole fillet, spicy pippin, or simply as an aperitif accompanying fresh toast with Chilean pebre.” Alejandro Farías / Vinos &amp; Más Magazine / Chile
20 Barrels Limited Edition	Sauvignon Blanc	2006	“Like its predecessor, the 2005, this wine has strong jalapeño, bell pepper and tomato leaf aromas. In fact, for a time it smells like salsa. The palate offers slap-you-in-the-face fruit and zest, while the finish is racy due to young, jumpy acidity. A nice wine with seafood appetizers.” Wine Enthusiast / USA
