| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2009 | "By far the best deal on a bottle of bio-wine was this general list wine from Cono Sur, the 2009 Viognier. Great value on a wine loaded with fruit like peach, pear and apple. Buy it for summer and consume it quick and chilled, this is not one for ageing, it's definitely for drink now enjoyment." Michael Pinkus - Grape Guy |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2009 | "If consistency is something you value the Cono Sur Viognier must be high on your list. A replica of the '08 it is fresh and clean with nectarine, honey, grapefruit, ginger, orange aromas and flavours. Light refreshing New World style with myriad food possibilities. Crazy value." www.gismondionwine.com / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2009 | "Cono Sur Bicycle label Viognier is a nice introduction to this fresh and fragrant white variety. Its pleasant citrus, peach and spice notes and hint of honeyed sweetness make it a flavourful white to sip on its own, but it's refreshing enough to pair nicely with a wide range of dishes. Great value." Christopher Waters / Toronto Sun / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "The market might be down but there is no reason why you should stop drinking wine. There are plenty of great values to be had. The Cono Sur Viognier is our latest find. Intrinsically Viognier with vibrant white peach and ginger aromas. Its juicy flavours will leave your palate refreshed and begging for another sip. A great wine to bring to parties during the holidays and a great match with Turkey." Michelle Bouffard / Eat Magazine / Canada |

| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "A dazzling value, showing vibrancy, depth and complexity well beyond its price. The secret? Viognier was grafted onto chenin blanc vines that were planted in 1957; the old vines add intensity to the flavours. Expect lifted aromas of spearmint, starfruit and pepper. Light to mid-weight and zesty, with some typical Viognier bitterness. The 2009 should be just as good." Toronto Eating & Drink Guide 2010 / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "Light yellow. Textbook Viognier aromas of white peach, pear, flowers and anise. Fleshy and smooth, showing gently sweet melon and pit fruit flavors, with gentle floral and spice qualities. An outstanding value, with the clarity and complexity of many Viogniers costing three or four times as much." Josh Reynolds / International Wine Cellar Mar-Apr. 2009 / USA |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "Pale to medium straw in color, with a pretty apple, pear and honeysuckle perfume that carries over onto the palate with a good dose of mineral. Medium to medium full bodied, with excellent acids and good length. The minerality gives this a solid anchor and adds a nice counterpoint to the rich, ripe fruit. Wish that more New World Viogniers did the same." George Heritier / http://www.gangofpour.com / USA |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "Is the last vintage of this crisp, lively, aromatic dry white from Chile. It's full of melon, peach and apricot flavours and has a gentle touch of spice. Enjoy it on its own or with shellfish or Thai food." Tim Curran / The Daily Mirror / UK |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "Sultry, smooth and luxurious, this is loaded with apricot blossom and freshly baked patisserie notes on the nose and it is blessed with a heavenly, honeyed palate. Utterly captivating and perfect for a dinner party, this is one of the most impressive whites of the year so far." Matthew Jukes / Daily Mail / UK |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | "Amazing wine for the price. Gorgeously aromatic with notes of rose petals, lychee, apricot and Asian pears. Pair it with curries, Asian dishes, shellfish, sushi, salads and turkey." Natalie MacLean / Metro (Edmond, AB) / Canada |

| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2008 | “Cono Sur planted Viognier first. Straw; medium bodied, spicy peach, sweet peachy fruit with lively acidity. Well balanced. Great value.” Tony Aspler / The wine guy www.tonyaspler.com / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “When it comes to value for money, you can't beat the wines of Cono Sur. Look for fantastic notes of aromatic peach with rich aromas of honeysuckle and apricot. This bottle is calling for a steaming bowl of delicious curry done up with a coconut milk and lots of spice.” Meghan MacCallum / MSN Lifestyle / USA |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “Cono Sur Viognier is the epitome of nice wine. If you want fun times, this is for you. Perfect for sipping this summer on the patio, or partner it with hot'n spicy ribs. No one will believe that wine so delicious could cost less than $10.” Billy Munnely / The London Free Press / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “Ripe white peach and apricot aromas that turn sweet on the palate. A tasty little sweet summer quaffer. Also try the Merlot with black berries, plums and a touch of mint. Enjoy!” Rick Van Sinckle / The Toronto Sun / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “Cono Sur, which claims to be the first winery in the world to achieve CarbonNeutral status, not only treats the environment well but delivers juicy wine at a great price. This Chilean white from the Colchagua Valley has lovely floral fresh peach aromatics. Fruity with a crisp finish, it's bound to attract fans this summer.” Margaret Swaine / The National Post / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “Lovely, lovely, peachy, aromatic white with rich, ripe fruit and a whiff of honeysuckle. Match with a mild creamy curry.” The Sunday Telegraph / UK |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “Delicious apricot fruit, smooth but still with terrific crisp acidity.” Yorkshire Post Magazine / UK |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “This soft, apricot wine from Chile has a texture and freshness that make it an ideal option for fish, salads or dishes with bold, spicy flavours.” Giles Kime / The Sunday Telegraph / UK |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “It's a rich, complex, lightly-oaked dry white from Chile full of melon, peach and apricot flavours. Enjoyable on its own or try it with shellfish, salmon or roast chicken.” Tim Curran / The Daily Mirror / UK |

| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “It is a grape of some substance, richly aromatic on the nose, the scent of peaches and cream rising up from the pale gold in the glass. On the palate, there’s body, and ripe melon balanced by sharper apricot notes, with a fine, warm finish, a hint of spice at the end.” Graham Gendall Norton / The Church of England Newspaper / UK |

| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2007 | “Viognier grapes are the new darlings of white wine. Think Chardonnay, but not as heavy with the makeup. It’s a real charmer that’s fun to sip any time. Cono Sur makes one of the best – and practically gives it away.” Billy Munnely & Kato Wake / Wish (Toronto, ON) / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2006 | “Let its tropical fruit flavours of apricots and nectarines evoke memories of summer holidays or favourite party celebrations” Hampshire Chronicle / UK |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2006 | “Chilean wine wonder keeps on coming, just not in big enough supplies. The city’s caught on – this is a deal! – and people are carting it home by the box. It likes fish – all kinds, even sushi – and spring vegetables, or green beans flash-fid in butter.” Georgia Straight / Vancouver BC / Canada |
| Cono Sur | Viognier | 2006 | “Cono Sur has managed something I would have thought impossible here, drawn an audience for Viognier. Part of it, is due to the halo effect of their other entries, but most of this is deserved. Their Viognier was Sairy’s pick out of the four – she came through the door, and before the poor woman even got her coat off I insisted she check out the wines. Great flavours of peach and pear up front, a nice weight with good acid in the middle, and a bit of smoke with a medium finish, this is a solid Viognier at a very good price.” James Romanow / The Star Phoenix / Canada |
