

press 0 (I 0

pinot noir

RANGE	VARIETY	HARVEST	WINE COMMENT / MEDIA / AUTHOR
-------	---------	---------	-------------------------------

Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2007	"This is a typical Oregon Pinot Noir with hints of cherry, blackberry, red dirt and fragrant earth laced with violets. It's pure, almost insanely clean. Perfect, stunning, addictive. Captures all that makes Pinot famous, but polishes it up into a structured masterpiece with crisp leather and wood layers. I do not know how one can make a better Pinot outside of Burgundy. This may be one of the finest Pinots you will ever drink. Astounding, one of my most favorite wines, ever. 99 points." Brainwines.com / USA
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2007	"Deep ruby; high tined, floral, creamy black cherry nose; sweet, spicy fruit on the palate, elegant and firmly structured with grainy tannins. Needs two years. (91)." Tony Aspler.com
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2007	Ocio, a 2007 Pinot Noir from Cono Sur winery, Casablanca Valley. "A nose of cherry, blackberry, red violets, and a stunning, masterful taste of crisp leather and wood layers. I do not know how one can make a better Pinot outside of Burgundy. Outstanding." Keith Hoffman / Lifestyle / UK

Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2007	Ocio Pinot Noir 2007 : 91 points “Cono Sur Winery is today the one who has cared mostly about Pinot Noir, and has been so since its very beginning, even before Adolfo Hurtado’s arrival, and even before the variety became fashionable. Cono Sur has always been related to Pinot, therefore it has a history with this battle, it has experience, and it has learned from its mistakes. Maybe that’s why the 2007 version of Ocio received the highest score in this tasting panel. This is a solid wine – just like Hurtado likes its – but it doesn’t escape from the variety’s genetic structure. Ripe and fresh red fruit, with a nice amount of acidity so it doesn’t get lost in excessive sweetness. It has a very impressive body. This is a great Pinot here and anywhere. Patricio Tapia & César Fredes / Epicuro Magazine, April 2009 / Chile
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2006	“Cono Sur Ocio Pinot Noir 2006 - a fine example of the rich, deep, red cherry Cono Sur style.” Tasting Zone Bottles Up / David Williams / UK
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2006	91 points “Lets get back to reality in Chile, and to one of the best examples of Pinot Noir. This great wine is acquiring a style that I like: fresh and fruity. Plentiful notes of acid cherry, with touches of strawberry, clove, cinnamon, and wet forest or ploughed land. In mouth it has less body than three years, but that doesn't make it any less persistent. Elegance and balance are its main features and undoubtedly they will improve next to layers of duck with a touch of orange and Marroquian spices.” Héctor Riquelme / El Gourmet Magazine / Chile
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2006	“If what you are looking for is an extraordinary Pinot, sophisticated, and very well done, this is an excellent choice. It’s production is small, specially for Chile. It’s considered to be the third best Chilean Pinot Noir of this year; it's outstanding and very consistent. Intense red colour, of a very good evolution. Pretty mature but fresh in its aromas of black cherries well integrated with wood. Tones of strawberry and black fruits, and notes of toast and smoked. Very good in mouth, filling and savy, structured and with an attractive proposal. You can feel the toasted notes right at the end, together with a pleasant acidity and structure, a very nice wine.” Guía de Vinos de Chile 2008 / Chile
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2006	90 Points. “Quite lush, with alluring spice, macerated black cherry, fig and incense notes that glide through a long, supple finish. Soft in structure, but shows impressive depth on the finish. Drink now through 2009.”

		James Molesworth / Wine Spectator / USA
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2006	91 Points. "Lets get back to reality in Chile, and to one of the best examples of Pinot Noir. This great wine is acquiring a style that I like: fresh and fruity. Plentiful notes of acid cherry, with touches of strawberry, clove, cinnamon, and wet forest or ploughed land. In mouth it has less body than three years, but that doesn't make it any less persistent. Elegance and balance are its main features and undoubtedly they will improve next to layers of duck with a touch of orange and Marroquian spices." Héctor Riquelme / El Gourmet Magazine / Chile
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2005	A Luxuray Pinot Noir. "Ocio Pinot Noir is Cono Sur's ultra premium wine. Very refined ruby cherry, elegant and intense. It goes superb with tuna fish from Easter Island, and assorted vegetables." Diario Estrategia / Chile
Cono Sur Ocio	Pinot Noir	2005	"The 2005 Cono Sur, Ocio Pinot Noir, Casablanca, is rated as one of the best red wines by the Decanter Magazine's wine experts. It has bramble fruit, cherry and spice. Cono Sur is fast becoming of Chile's top wines." The Observer / UK

Cono Sur

