Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2008	“Medium straw color, with a fairly typical peach and litchi nose that follows through in the flavors with some added green apple accented with subtle mineral on the palate. Medium bodied, rich and ripe, but not too sweet, with excellent acids and a long, dry finish. Very satisfying and delicious.” George Heritier / www.gangofpoor.com / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2008	“Light straw. Smoky, powerfully scented bouquet of tangerine, apricot, vanilla bean and yellow rose. Exotic pit and tropical fruit flavors are sweetened by vanilla and complicated by clove and mace notes. Pretty wild stuff, with very good finishing breadth and spiciness. This would be great with pungent cheeses.” Josh Reynolds / International Wine Cellar Mar-Apr. 2009 / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2007	“Mineral and soft gardenias aromas abound on the nose of this wine. It’s a really pleasant bouquet. The palate is crisp from near-perfect acidity. Apple, peach and citrus flavors make it quite tasty. It’s definitely a drier Gewurz, which is how I prefer it. The finish is elegant and interesting with perfume notes on the back of your palate. It’s very nice.” www.cheapwineratings.com / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2007	"Cono Sur's 2007 Visión Gewürztraminer shows what's possible (in CasaBlanca): It's fleshy and bright, with the typical aromas and flavors of lychee, rose petals and spice." Laurie Daniel / Mercury News / USA

Hurtado also makes an exemplary Gewürztraminer; the 2007 "Visión" Gewürztraminer is fleshy and bright, with the typical aromas and flavors of lychee, rose petals and

Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2007	White Wine of the Week “Some stunning Gewurz comes out of Casablanca, and although most reside in a higher price bracket than this example, it certainly shows the grape’s potential. The nose displays great typicity with aromas of rose water and lychees, while the slightly creamy palate has layers of ginger and spice. Drink 2008.” Decanter Magazine / UK
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2006	“This Chilean example of the Gewürztraminer grape is dry, a bit spicy and typically aromatic. It’s delicious and would work well with the smoked chicken kebabs.” Jamie Goode / Sunday Express / UK
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2006	“Shows a nice mix of lychee and pink grapefruit, with a pleasantly bitter hint framing the finish. Has good varietal character.” Wine Spectator Magazine / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2006	“Pale yellow. Sexy orange, apricot and nectarine aromas offer a compelling bouquet, with white rose and smoked meat nuances adding complexity. Fleshy melon and pit fruit flavors are deep but braced by zesty acidity, which adds definition to the finish. Quite elegant, with none of the exaggerated perfume that puts many winos off this variety.” Josh Reynolds / International Wine Cellar / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Gewürztraminer	2006	“Gewürztraminer is a relatively unknown grape in Chile, but that may well change if wines like this dry, fresh, lychee-scented white from Cono Sur are indicative of what this Alsace variety can be when planted in the right place.” Food & Wine Magazine / USA
