Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2010	“Clean ruby color, with a cherry stick nose; on the palate, it’s all about rich, yet dry cherry and red plum on a medium full bodied frame. Smooth and balanced, with unobtrusive tannins and good acids that should take at least a few years down the road, but it’s eminently drinkable right now. Both Kim and I like this a lot, and what it might lack in complexity, it more than compensates for with an engaging personality.” Sandra Silfven / The Detroit News / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2008	“Like an essence of Pinot Noir. Adolfo Hurtado's new vintage off a select site in the Colchagua Valley is brimming with raspberry, cherry and black plum fruit, along with cocoa, earthy tones. It has super acidity and supple tannins that wrap around the fruit. Screw cap and sustainably grown. Read the fine print on the back label: This dandy hails from "Old Vines 68" -- a plot of land with Chile's first planting of Pinot Noir in 1968. It has a foggy, cool microclimate with stone-clay soils that make it perfect for Pinot. Fifteen dollars? The price is so right.C” George Heritier / http://www.gangofpour.com / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2008	“Dark red. Pungent cherry, herbal and floral scents are complicated by minerals and a hint of cocoa. Pliant dark berry and bitter cherry flavors display good concentration and gain firmness with air. The cocoa note repeats on the gently sweet finish. This could handle richer foods.” Josh Reynolds / International Wine Cellar Mar-Apr. 2009 / USA
Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2007	Wine of Excellence “Round and plush and full of fruit flavours, it’s more New World than old in style. Flavours of red cherry and black currant galore here with no hint of sugary sweetness, just of pure ripe fruit. Nicely framed by ripe supple tannin and balanced with moderating zest; it sports a lengthy finish and would pair well with smoked duck breasts.” Vic Harradine / Winecurrent.com / Canada

Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2007	Cono Sur Visión Pinot Noir 2007 “This light, stylish wine has real clarity, with flavours of strawberry, cherry and cedar. Burgundy meets the New World.” Time Out / UK
Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2007	“Pinot Noir is a challenge in Chile and the ground must be chosen carefully. When they get it right, it’s great. Here’s classical Pinot, with fresh cherry, wild strawberry and red currant flavours, firm and fleshy with rounded tannin.” Dan Kislenko / The Hamilton Spectator / Canada
Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2006	Wine of Excellence! “Cono Sur is Chile’s biggest producer of Pinot Noir, and this is one of their premium lines. What you get is a delicious and classy new world Pinot, full of plush dark cherry flavour with notes of smoke and oak. Thanks to a good seam of acidity, it has a refreshing texture that makes it an excellent partner for a rack of lamb.” Rod Phillips and Vic Harradine / winecurrent.com / Canada
Cono Sur Visión	Pinot Noir	2006	“The best value Pinot Noir in the current release at vintages. Nice black cherry, cedar and beetroot aromas transition into flavours alive with mellow black cherry and strawberry wrapped around a cedar core. A slightly bitter tannic finish.” The Toronto Star / Gordon Stimmell / Canada
